

When a Mandatory Report is made to the Office of Title IX

Mandatory Report made to the Office of Title IX

Title IX reaches out to offer Supportive Measures and Reporting Options

Complainant Options Include

Supportive Measures Only

- A Complainant can choose to receive only resources and Supportive Measures from the Office of Title IX.
- Complainant DOES NOT have to pursue a formal investigation.
- A Complainant can change their mind at any time and file a formal complaint.

File a Formal Complaint

- A Complainant can choose to file a formal complaint with the Office of Title IX to initiate a University Investigation.
- Title IX staff will work with the Complainant to connect them with the appropriate office.
- During the process, a Complainant can continue to receive Supportive Measures from the Office of Title IX.

Report to Law Enforcement

- A Complainant has the right to choose to report to police.
- Office of Title IX staff will work with the Complainant to connect them with law enforcement in the appropriate jurisdiction.
- During the process a Complainant can continue to receive Supportive Measures from the Office Title IX.